Honors Scholars Requirements:

1. A minimum of 12 credits of Honors work toward study in the major or related (as approved by the department Honors advisor) at the 200-level or above, including at lease three credits towards the Honors thesis. Courses used toward the Sophomore Honors Certificate cannot be used toward the Honors Scholar graduation requirements. (Please verify the "Honors credit" notations on your transcript for any completed Honors work.)
2. Completion of a departmentally-approved Honors thesis. Upon completion and approval, a copy of the Honors thesis must be submitted with a signed approval sheet to the Honors Program Office.
3. A 3.2 Total GPA
4. Students must also meet any additional requirements for Honors Scholar graduation in that department. Check with your Honors advisor for details.

Departmental Honors Scholar Requirements:

In addition to the general Honors Scholar requirements, departments may have additional or specific departmental Honors requirements. If any, please list any other special departmental requirement for Honors in your major here: (i.e., seminars, comprehensive exam, oral thesis presentation, GPA).

Honors Courses:

List courses that you plan to take for Honors credit during junior and senior years to be used toward upper-division Honors requirements for graduation as an "Honors Scholar".

Honors Course Codes: Please use the following codes to indicate the type of Honors Credit expected:
