

PATRICIA SZAREK

Associate Director of the Honors Program for Enrollment

As an Honors Scholar graduate of the University of Connecticut with a long history in her position, Ms. Szarek offers a unique perspective on the Honors Program. Throughout her time in her role, she has been involved in many aspects of the development of the Honors Program. Her contributions have included work in enrollment management, admissions, recruitment, academic advising, marketing, and event organization.